

If I see Dave at the bus stop I stop and pick him up. He's always so grateful. It's sad that he's got dementia. Some things he remembers easily & repeats them often but that's OK. It's very interesting. He's lived in 7 different countries.

